

Date Updated and Published: June 2017

Review: Annually

Last Date Reviewed: February 2019

Revision History:

-

POLICY

Bethel University collects personally identifiable information when users submit forms such as, but not limited to, applications, financial transactions, or requests for information through the University's website. Personally identifiable information includes any information that could be used to identify the user, including, but not limited to, name, address, e-mail address, Social Security number, birth date, bank account information, credit card information, and/or any combination of information that could be used for identification purposes. This information is utilized only to fulfill the users' requests. The University only uses this information to support the administrative requirements of the University respective to each transaction. Information collected on the Bethel University website will not be sold or publicly distributed. Bethel University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) regulations. Any questions concerning this information collection and use should be directed to the Office of Compliance at (731) 352-4046.

RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

Webmasters, Chief Academic and Compliance Officer

PUBLICATION

University website